

Otiende Amollo

On June 17, 2014, Mr. Otiende Amollo, Chairman, Commission for Administrative Justice (CAJ), made a key note presentation on re-examining the role and relevance of the Ombudsman and its contributions to justice, governance and public service. He was speaking during a training session on capacity development on effective complaints management for complaints handling officers and staff.

The training targeting members of the University's Central Corruption Committees, Colleges, Student Welfare Authority (SWA), University of Nairobi Enterprise Services (UNES) and Central units Corruption Prevention Committees' members saw the participants trained by facilitators from the Commission for Administrative Justice (CAJ).
