Introduction

The University of Nairobi has responded to national, regional and Africa's high level manpower training needs by developing and evolving, diversified academic programmes and specializations in sciences, applied sciences, technology, humanities, social sciences and the arts. Through self-sponsored programmes, invaluable opportunity has been opened to thousands of Kenyans and non-Kenyans, who meet university admission requirements. The location of the University in the capital city and its environs is an advantage that has seen the university increasingly become a busy hub and citadel of academic activity at all times. In addition to the regular, evening and weekend programmes, classes are conducted at the University's Campuses in Mombasa and Kisumu and also in the Extra mural Centres located in the following centers; Garissa, Kakamega, Nakuru, Meru, Kapenguria, Kisii, Thika, Lokichogio, Lamu and Nyeri.

This booklet contains information about the entry requirements into the various undergraduate degree programmes, diploma, certificate, bridging and foundation courses offered at the University of Nairobi, the mode of study, fees payable and various contacts for further enquiries. Details of the course content may be obtained from the University of Nairobi website: www.uonbi.ac.ke.
